By the first paragraph, we have 3 buildings listed as bugged, the “Permanent Mission of India at the United Nations and the embassy in Washington, DC” and The “U.N. Mission building in New York and the embassy premises, including its annex, “this gives support for the following fields.

Target/country	Location
India/UN	New York
India Emb	Wash, DC
India/Emb Annex	Wash, DC

Paragraphs 5- 8 describe the bugging methods:

Lifesaver, which facilitates imaging of the hard drive of computers
Highlands, which makes digital collection from implants
Vagrant, which collects data of open computer screens, and
Magnetic, which is a collection of digital signals

Paragraph 9, All Indian targets marked with an asterisk, thus the table becomes:

Target/country	Location
India/UN*	New York
India Emb*	Wash, DC
India/Emb Annex*	Wash, DC

Paragraph 13 states that the permanent mission to the UN in New York is on the top of the Indian target list. Paragraph 14, states that this building was the target of all four bugs (as described in pp 5-8). So We now need to make 3 additional lines and add the “Mission” column. The latest iteration:

Target/country	Location	Mission
India/UN*	New York	LIFESAVER
India/UN*	New York	HIGHLANDS
India/UN*	New York	VAGRANT
India/UN*	New York	MAGNETIC
India Emb*	Wash, DC
India/Emb Annex*	Wash, DC

Paragraph 15 States that the next building is on the list is the Chancery (the Embassy) and was the target for 3 bugs that can make images of hard drives (LIFESAVER), pick digital signals (MAGNETIC) and copy data of computer screens (VAGRANT). Therefor we need another 2 lines, and the latest iteration becomes:

Target/country	Location	Mission
India/UN*	New York	LIFESAVER
India/UN*	New York	HIGHLANDS
India/UN*	New York	VAGRANT
India/UN*	New York	MAGNETIC
India Emb*	Wash, DC	LIFESAVER
India Emb*	Wash, DC	MAGNETIC
India Emb*	Wash, DC	VAGRANT
India/Emb Annex*	Wash, DC

Paragraph 16 describes a third building, the embassy annex referred to in paragraph 1. And States that it was targeted by Highlands and Vagrant. Our final iteration for India:

Target/country	Location	Mission
India/UN*	New York	LIFESAVER
India/UN*	New York	HIGHLANDS
India/UN*	New York	VAGRANT
India/UN*	New York	MAGNETIC
India Emb*	Wash, DC	LIFESAVER
India Emb*	Wash, DC	MAGNETIC
India Emb*	Wash, DC	VAGRANT
India/Emb Annex*	Wash, DC	HIGHLANDS
India/Emb Annex*	Wash, DC	VAGRANT

But we do have some additional clues that states that this document is FAR larger: “Alarm bells have been ringing in New Delhi too since July when it was first reported that 38 embassies and diplomatic missions, including the Indian embassy in Washington, were targeted by the NSA.”

And there was a reminder about another story I'd seen: “The document obtained by The Hindu doesn't say if the bugs were placed physically or if the machines at the Indian Mission and embassy were targeted through the internet network, bugs similar to those aimed at Indian offices were actually “implanted” in a commercially available encrypted fax machine used at missions such as that of the European Union. In a recent expose, The Guardian had revealed that the NSA infiltrated the internal computer network of several European embassies and the EU to intercept their communications.”

Which brings us to Der Spiegel, and in hindsight, it would seem that this document is a source of it, too.

Paragraph 1 describes the EU embassy to the UN, In New York. And Paragraph 3 gives it a coverterm, “Apalatchee.” Paragraph 10 gives us some other targets.EU, UN and International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) in Vienna. Paragraph 17 mentions a document dated September 2010, Let's make a leap of logic, and say that it too is on the close access sigad document. It further states that the EU embassy in Washington is bugged, and gives it a coverterm: “Magothy.” Let's remember that US-3136 is Domestic, US-3137 is Foreign. This gives us a nice starting point:

US-3136
Target/Country	Location	Coverterm
EU/UN	New York	APALATCHEE
EU/Emb	Wash, DC	MAGOTHY

US-3137
Target/Country	Location
Austria/IAEA	Vienna

Paragraph 18 gives us some quick facts: The embassies in Washington and New York are bugged (Highlands). ,At the embassy in New York, the hard disks have also been copied. (Lifesaver) In Washington the agents have also tapped into the internal computer cable network (Mineralize). Referring back to the Close Access Sigad Key published earlier, we get to make some changes.

US-3136
Target/Country	Location	Coverterm	Mission
EU/UN	New York	APALATCHEE	HIGHLANDS
EU/UN	New York	APALATCHEE	LIFESAVER
EU/Emb	Wash, DC	MAGOTHY	HIGHLANDS
EU/Emb	Wash, DC	MAGOTHY	MINERALIZE

US-3137
Target/Country	Location
Austria/IAEA	Vienna

And that's as far as this the der spiegel article takes this document. But wait a minute, didn't the Earlier article mention the Guardian, and Encrypted Faxes?

<http://www.theguardian.com/world/2013/jun/30/nsa-leaks-us-bugging-european-allies>

Oh look, right in the headline: Edward Snowden papers reveal 38 targets including EU, France and Italy. And there's a picture of DROPMIRE mentioning the EU Embassy in DC. Well, it was in 2007. I'm rebuilding the September 2010 document.

Paragraph 3 “Along with traditional ideological adversaries and sensitive Middle Eastern countries, the list of targets includes the EU missions and the French, Italian and Greek embassies, as well as a number of other American allies, including Japan, Mexico, South Korea, India and Turkey. The list in the September 2010 document does not mention the UK, Germany or other western European states.” Ideological Adversaries and Sensitive Middle Eastern Countries isn't specific enough to put in the table but ought to include: China, Russia, Iraq, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Israel etc. It ought not include Iran or North Korea (no embassy). No Western Europe besides those already mentioned, No Spain, Portugal, etc.. We have covered France and India earlier.

Target/Country	Location	Coverterm	Mission
EU/UN
France/Emb
Italy/Emb
Greece/Emb
Japan
Mexico
South Korea
India
Turkey

paragraph 9 gives us some headache: “The US intelligence service codename for the bugging operation targeting the EU mission at the United Nations is "Perdido"” Der Spiegel said it was “apalatchee” Continuing: “Among the documents leaked by Snowden is a floor plan of the mission in midtown Manhattan. The methods used against the mission include the collection of data transmitted by implants, or bugs, placed inside electronic devices (HIGHLANDS), and another covert operation that appears to provide a copy of everything on a targeted computer's hard drive. (LIFESAVER)”

Paragraph 10: “The eavesdropping on the EU delegation to the US, on K Street in Washington, involved three different operations targeted on the embassy's 90 staff. Two were electronic implants and one involved the use of antennas to collect transmissions.(DROPMIRE)” The EU section at this point ought to look something like:

Target/Country	Location	Coverterm	Mission
EU/UN	New York	APALATCHEE/PERDIDO	HIGHLANDS
EU/UN	New York	APALATCHEE/PERDIDO	LIFESAVER
EU/Emb	Wash, DC	MAGOTHY	HIGHLANDS
EU/Emb	Wash, DC	MAGOTHY	MINERALIZE
EU/Emb	Wash, DC	MAGOTHY	DROPMIRE

Paragraph 11 is helpful, Let's me know I'm on the right track. “The 2010 document describes the operation as "close access domestic collection".” Paragraph 12 and 13 provide some flesh. The operation against the French mission to the UN had the covername "Blackfoot" and the one against its embassy in Washington was "Wabash". The Italian embassy in Washington was known to the NSA as both "Bruneau" and "Hemlock".

The eavesdropping of the Greek UN mission was known as "Powell" and the operation against its embassy was referred to as "Klondyke". Thus Completes this article's information;

Target/Country	Location	Coverterm	Mission
France/UN	New York	BLACKFOOT
France/Emb	Wash, DC	WABASH
Italy/Emb	Wash, DC	BRUNEAU/HEMLOCK
Greece/UN	New York	POWELL
Greece/Emb	Wash, DC	KLONDYKE

After merging the appropriate sources, the table appears:

There is another article, which provides no additional details.
